Accompanying the next major Omnis software release, a new way of dealing with software upgrades will be introduced.

Rather than using upgrade licenses for every major release, it will be possible to sign three-year software maintenance agreement. The maintenance agreements will allow unlimited free upgrades within the time period. Note, service packs within the same major release will still be available free of charge.

The licenses to upgrade to the latest release, at present version 6.3, will therefore be phased out. The final day for using upgrade licenses to get to version 6.3 will be 31 January 2020.
