The following products are moving towards the end of their life cycle and will cease to be manufactured during 2020. The last time buy quantities have been established, and there will not be any opportunity to increase the agreed quantities. The reasons for the phase-out intention are that

- certain components are obsolete
- there is a change in the EN standards, which the products are not designed to pass
- manufacturing numbers have dropped significantly
- we have the Two-Way Wireless portfolio as an alternative product offering.
